SILVER & GOLD DONORS

Includes membership of the French association and all the benefits listed above plus special recognition in our programme and websites.

Silver and Gold Donors constitute our special group of supporters who help secure the future of the festival by committing to a major donation or regular giving. Donors may choose to make a specific donation, for example to sponsor a particular concert, an Academy tutor or a seat within the orchestra, to cover the hire of a grand piano or to offer a bursary for an Academy student, ensuring that we can invite the most promising young musicians regardless of their financial situation. Specific donations must fit the charitable goals of the Trust or association; we would be delighted to discuss your ideas with you.

GIFT AID & TAX DEDUCTIBILITY

- French supporters to the Musique Cordiale Association can complete a Certificat du Don to offset against tax.
- For our UK supporters, we are now supported by The Musique-Cordiale Trust, an independent charity registered in England (no. 1167732), allowing British taxpayers to claim Gift Aid on their contributions – meaning that we receive the donation and reclaim the tax paid on the income that paid for it. Higher rate taxpayers may claim additional tax deductibility on their annual returns. Please complete the separate Gift Aid form. Please note that membership to the French association does not qualify.
- Supporters from elsewhere in Europe should soon be able to benefit from the tax deductibility arrangements in their country of residence via Transnational Giving Europe (TGE). In this case, please tick 'The Musique Cordiale Trust' on page 2 and write your country of residence here: _____

ARTIST HOSTS

One of the most expensive parts of the festival is accommodating over 100 musicians in and around Seillans. We are immensely grateful to those supporters who offer to host musicians at no cost and are pleased to be able to offer them festival passes in return for their generosity. If you are interested in offering accommodation for one or both weeks of the 2017 festival, please don't hesitate to get in touch.
