

Do you love music?

Do you love to sing?

Would you like to be part of an International Music Festival set in the beautiful mediaeval villages just behind the Mediterranean?

Why not join us in Provence to soak up the sun, see the sights, absorb the culture, meet new friends and be part of the music extravaganza that is Musique Cordiale?

Set in rural Provence and just an hour from Nice, Seillans, is the magical home to the Musique Cordiale International Festival which is now in its 21st year. Wake up in the hills of the Var to the gorgeous Provençal sunshine, breakfast on freshly made croissant with your coffee before heading to a rehearsal. Gastronomically opulent, you will be spoilt for choice with locally grown produce, boulangeries, bistros and brasseries. Culturally rich, the region boasts breath-taking scenery and numerous historic gems, not to mention the absolutely glorious vineyards!

This multinational experience allows you to immerse yourself in wonderful music-making with daily rehearsals, concert performances and the opportunity to attend other vocal, chamber and orchestral Festival concerts ranging from Baroque to Jazz!

The Musique Cordiale Choir, accompanied by the professional musicians of the Musique Cordiale Orchestra, will be conducted by the internationally acclaimed Graham Ross. There is the option to prepare two programmes; the orchestral programme or the orchestral and a cappella programmes.

We are delighted to announce the orchestral programme will be Haydn's The Creation. There will also be an a cappella programme for those singers who can handle an extra challenge!
